

In Our Prayers This Week

Collect for Trinity Sunday

Holy God, faithful and unchanging: enlarge our minds with the knowledge of your truth, and draw us more deeply into the mystery of your love, that we may truly worship you, Father, Son and Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

In thanksgiving for the Institution of Holy Communion

All praise to you, our God and Father, for you have fed us with the bread of Heaven and Quenched our thirst from the true vine: hear our prayer that, being grafted into Christ, we may grow together in unity and feast with him in his kingdom.

Message from Mother Emma

At the time of printing (Thursday 9th June) we have been preparing for our service of Confirmation which takes place this evening. The Rt Revd Dr Graham Tomlin, who has been Bishop of Kensington for the past seven years, will be moving on to a new post over the summer and so this will sadly be his last visit to the parish as our Bishop. We hope that you were able to come to support our Confirmation candidates as they take this next step on their journey of faith, and also welcome Bishop Graham to the parish for a final time, and wish him farewell. Georgia, Katerina, Jose, Helen, Ran and Sophera will have been confirmed from this parish, alongside Confirmation candidates from St Philip's, Earls Court Road and St Mary The Boltons and others who will be re-affirming their baptismal faith. Many members of the parish have been confirmed at St Mary Abbots by Bishop Graham over the past few years, or been inspired by his ministry, and we wish him every blessing in his next role.

Looking ahead to Sunday, as we celebrate the mystery of the Holy Trinity, we are delighted to be baptizing Teddy and Aurelia during our 9.30 Eucharist, and welcoming their families and friends to the parish. This Sunday is the Royal School of Church Music's designated Music Sunday, and we will take the opportunity in our prayers at Choral Matins to give thanks for our choir and musicians; for the joy and hope their wonderful contributions make to our worship and for the way they transformed our services during the dark days of lockdown and restrictions.

Next week is a week of vibrant parish activity, with a wonderful talk and tour of the church and its treasures on Thursday evening (16th) at 6.30 pm, and our Parish Summer Party in the Vicarage Garden on Saturday 18th at 12 noon. Please do join us for these events (tickets for the talk are available on the "what is on" page of our website or on the door, and there will be no entrance fee for the Summer Party – just an opportunity for donations on the door and small charges for individual children's events, stalls and refreshments. As we continue to remember our 150th Anniversary, please do make sure you have looked at the potential plans for the new ramp and left a comment in the comments box (or by email to me).

As we seek to follow the promptings of the Spirit following our beautiful Pentecost celebrations, we continue to collect good quality women's summer clothes for Ukrainian refugees, to ask for donations to the Foodbank and educational books for libraries in Syria.

Almighty and eternal God, you have revealed yourself as Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and live and reign in the perfect unity of love. Hold us firm in the faith, that we may know you in all your ways and evermore rejoice in your eternal glory, who are three Persons yet one God, now and for ever, Amen. (Post communion prayer for Trinity Sunday, Common Worship Times and Seasons)

With my love and prayers, Mother Emma

Educational Books drop off

Thank you to all who dropped off children's books for Syria. We are now looking for Educational text books on philosophy, psychology, language, science, Arts, photography, Geography and classic literature to help create a refugees library.

A donations box can be found on the table to the left of the South Door, as you come into the church via the cloister and all donations are gratefully received.
