Collect for 3rd Sunday after Trinity

God our Saviour, look on this wounded world in pity and in power; hold us fast to your promises of peace won for us by your Son, our Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen

Collect for St Thomas

Almighty and eternal God, who from the firmer foundation of our faith, allowed your hold apostle Thomas to doubt the resurrection of your son till word and sight convinced him: grant us who have not seen that we also may believe. Amen.

Message from Mother Emma

This coming Sunday at St Mary Abbots, we shall be celebrating the Feast of St Thomas the Apostle. At the Family Eucharist at 9.30 am, our children will be reading and leading our prayers, and we warmly invite all families to stay in church so we can worship together. At the 11.15 service of Choral Matins, Fr Peter Galloway will be preaching for us and there will, as usual, be a service of Sung Evensong at 5.30 pm. We look very much to welcoming you.

Next Thursday (7th July), we are delighted to be hosting a wonderful concert by our professional choir, entitled "Kensington's Greatest Composers". Please join us to hear pieces by well-known composers who have lived or worked in Kensington, followed by a glass of wine and the opportunity to speak to choir members. The concert has been kindly supported by John D Wood Estate Agents, who are also celebrating their 150th Anniversary this year, and tickets are available through the website.

I would warmly encourage you to visit the Exhibition, now up in the Holland Chapel, which shows photographs of some of St Mary Abbots' sacred artefacts and vestments, together with some history and explanation of the liturgies for which they are used. Emmanuel Saint's wonderful pictures, together with Leonora's artistic display, all kindly sponsored by Knight Frank, create a wonderful insight into the church's treasures and their centrality within the parish's worship today and across the centuries.

Looking ahead already to the autumn, please SAVE THREE DATES; first our Patronal Festival on Sunday 11th September with the Bishop of London, second the talk by the Victorian Society on Sir George Gilbert Scott on 21st September and finally the Victorian Fun Day for families on 24th September. These all will continue and add to our celebration of our 150th Anniversary, and we hope there will be something for everyone to enjoy.

As always, I wish you every blessing in the week ahead, and hope to see many of you soon.

Almighty God, Grant that your Church may faithfully hold and make known the faith that has come to us through the apostles, that with St Thomas and all your saints we may inherit the glories of eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. [Common Worship, Intercessions for the Apostles]

With my love and prayers, Mother Emma

Bishop Graham Tomlin Tuesday 12th July 2022, 7.30pm

Bishop Graham Tomlin will be stepping down as the Bishop of Kensington next month in order to lead the Centre for Cultural Witness, which looks at how to change the perceptions of Christian faith in contemporary culture. Bishop Graham says: "It has been a huge privilege to serve as the Bishop of Kensington over these past years. I have had the joy of working with a wonderful group of clergy and lay people, who have borne witness to Christ during difficult times in ways that have constantly inspired and encouraged me. It will be a wrench to leave the Area and the wider London diocese, but I do feel the urgency and am excited by this call to engage with the Church's public witness in a more focussed way in the years to come." If you would like to attend the leaving service, sign his e-card or contribute to his leaving gift then please email Mother Emma or Leonora for details.
