

In Our Prayers This Week

The Alternative Collect

Almighty God, give us reverence for all creation and respect for every person, that we may mirror your likeness in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

On love

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs. Love does not delight in evil but rejoices with the truth. It always protects, always trusts, always hopes, always perseveres. Love never fails.” – 1 Corinthians 13:4-8

Message from Mother Emma

Greetings to you all as we see the first signs of Spring approaching, and many thanks to everyone who has been in touch with me this week.

This Sunday our main online service is a Family Eucharist for the first Sunday in the month, with children reading and leading our prayers. We are very grateful to Martina for her organization, to Mother Alice for her sermon, and to all the children and their families for recording the different elements of the service. Thanks, too, to Mark and the choir for providing the music, and to Leonora for editing. I do hope that you will be able to join us online from 9.30 am.

We are also offering the service of Morning Prayer on Zoom, which will begin at 10.30 am. The Zoom link is the same as in previous weeks, but if it has disappeared or if you would like to join us for the first time, do get in touch with me and I shall send it to you on Saturday. There will be a children's Zoom service for the under-5s at 9.30 am, and I warmly recommend your watching Martina's amazing reflective short Bible story films week by week, officially for the children, but a wonderful source of reflection for people of all ages.

This newsletter contains details of Lent projects and ways we can reach out to others as we approach the season of Lent, when we dedicate ourselves to worship, study and acts of service. The Archbishops of Canterbury and York have also invited us to join in prayers for our nation each evening in February at 6 pm, to comfort and encourage one another in this final stage of lockdown. If you would like to join in, please find details here <https://www.churchofengland.org/resources/prayer-nation>

The clergy and Parochial Church Council are taking this period of restricted worship spend time reflecting on the direction of the parish's mission and ministry "after Covid". If you have any thoughts about worship, activities, charitable links or pastoral outreach, please do get in touch. We may yet be enlisting you all in answering a few short questions or surveys, as we begin to discern some possible ideas!

"Crown us, O God, but with humility, and robe us with compassion, that, as you call us into the kingdom of your Son, we may strive to overcome all evil by the power of good and so walk gently on the earth with you, our God, forever" (Common Worship Daily Prayer, response to Psalm 21)

With my love and prayers, Mother Emma
