

In Our Prayers This Week

Collect for 2nd Sunday of Lent

Almighty God, by the prayer and discipline of Lent may we enter into the mystery of Christ's sufferings, and by following in his way come to share in his glory; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayer for strength

Oh God, you know us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright. Grant to us such strength and protection as may support us in all dangers. Amen

Message from Mother Emma

As we continue to keep the situation in Ukraine in our thoughts and prayers, please see HERE a page from the Diocesan website with different ways we may wish to help. In addition, the Revd Sally Thomas from the United Reformed Church will be leading a Peace Vigil this Sunday and for future Sundays from 3 to 4 pm in the Alec Clifton-Taylor Memorial Garden close to our church, if you would like to join people of all denominations and faiths in praying for peace and for all those affected.

We were so grateful to all those who came forward to be commissioned as volunteers to restore the weekly coffee between our two main services, and our hope is to offer our first refreshments as part of the celebration for Mothering Sunday on March 27th. If you would still like to volunteer to join the team, please do get in touch with Fr Christopher, who can connect you with the team co-ordinator.

Another vital lay ministry within the life of the Church is that of welcome. St Benedict wrote in the Rule for his monks: "All who come should be received as though they were Christ." Our sidespeople and welcomers at the door are often the first experience people have of the church, and we would love to have more volunteers of all ages to join the team. If you yourself had a good experience of being welcomed when you first came to St Mary Abbots and would like to be able to pass this on to others, please do get in touch with Fr Christopher, as we shall be commissioning, training and offering lunch for welcomers and sidespeople at 12.30 pm on Sunday 20th March.

Moving into the second week of Lent, the season of penitence, prayer, study and drawing closer to God, we look forward welcoming you to Church this coming Sunday.

God our Father, in your love and goodness you have taught us to come close to you in penitence with prayer, fasting and generosity; accept our Lenten discipline, and when we fall by our weakness, raise us up by your unfailing mercy; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen. [Common Worship, Lent prayers]

With my love and prayers, Mother Emma

GLASSDOOR

Sponsor the Team

The London Walk in aid of Glass Door Saturday 19th March – Sponsorship

A huge thank you to everyone who has sponsored Mother Emma, Father Christopher, Becky, Chloe, Hakan, Jeremy, John, Julia, Martina and Ran for their fancy dress 10k walk through central London next Saturday. With your help we have raised over £1,400 which will make a huge difference. The team (including Cuthbert) will be dressed in colourful clothes (some even sporting a feather boa or two), will be setting off from Trafalgar Square. Let's hope for good weather! If you have yet to donate please visit the team website page: www.glassdoor.org.uk/fundraisers/stmaryabbots. Details about Glass Door and its work can be found here: www.glassdoor.org.uk

Sidespeople & Welcomers Prayer and Training Day 20th March 2022, 12.30pm

Please join us as we commission our wonderful sidespeople and welcomers who greet you as you enter the church, hand out service sheets (and this newsletter!), show you to your pews, collect hymn books and service sheets after afterwards and keep watch during the service. If you feel called to offer your help or to take part in this vital role then please let Father Christopher know that you are interested.

Royal College of Music Concert Tuesday 22nd March, 1.05pm

The students of the Royal College of Music are putting on an additional piano concert at church which includes a performance by Qinyue He of Bach's French Suite no.5 in G major, BWV 816, Zhimiao Geng playing Liszt's Apres une lecture du Dante: Fantasia quasi Sonata and lastly Phoebe Liu performing Schumann's Carnaval op.9. As usual entrance is free – please come and support the students.

Handel's Messiah

Sunday 10th April Part II & III
at 5.30 pm

In a change to our usual Palm Sunday concert The Purcell Players and St Mary Abbots choir will be performing the second two acts of Handel's Messiah rather than The Passion. Tickets are £10 and we hope that you will come and support the choir. Please see the 'what is on' page of our website to book your place: www.smaw8.org/what-is-on.html

Red Cross Emergency Appeal for Ukraine

Our thoughts and prayers are with the people of the Ukraine who continue to stand up against the illegal invasion of their country, who's bravery comes a huge personal risk and who citizens suffer danger, turmoil, separation and death. If you would like to support the emergency appeal set up by The International Committee of the Red Cross (ICRC) and Ukrainian Red Cross Society (URCS) which aims to distribute food, water, 1st Aid, medicines, warm clothes and shelter to those on the ground, and those fleeing over the border into Poland, Romania, Hungary, Moldova and Slovakia. If you would like to donate please visit the Red Cross page: www.redcross.org.uk or visit the Ukrainian Institute's website: www.ukrainianinstitute.org.uk
