

In Our Prayers This Week

Collect for the 3rd Sunday before Advent

Heavenly Lord, you long for the world's salvation: stir us from apathy, restrain us from excess and revive in us new hope that all creation will one day be healed in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

Prayers for Martyrs

We thank you for the noble army of martyrs by the shedding of whose blood the Church has been enriched: keep under your protection those who are persecuted for the cause of Christ, and acknowledge, we pray, those who have passed through death trusting your promises Amen

Message from Mother Emma

This has been a week of wonderful music in the church, and we give thanks for all who have shared their gifts with us. Those who attended the contemporary concert written and performed by students of the Royal College of Music, inspired by the architecture of Gilbert Scott, were entranced by the music played in turn from a number of different "stations" within the church, by the door, the Children's Chapel, the font, the North Door, the St Paul's Chapel and the Resurrection Chapel, with a repeated "chorus" drawing all the musicians together at intervals. It was beautiful, reflective, with touches of melancholy and of lightness, such as the sound of the bells echoing in the chorus. Many heartfelt thanks from all of us who were there to the RCM students who composed or performed. We rejoice, as ever, in our longstanding partnership with the College, who, as you will know, perform every Friday lunchtime in a free concert at the church.

On Sunday we celebrated All Saints with a Choral Eucharist in the morning, and then held the very moving All Souls' Commemoration of the Faithful Departed, with an octet singing movements from Duruflé's Requiem. I am very grateful to Mark, Nick and the choir for enhancing our worship and our remembrance so very beautifully as more than 300 names were read out before the altar, and we lit candles in memory of those who had died.

This coming Sunday, we have our Family Eucharist, with children reading, praying, serving and greeting, and we welcome people of every age to share in this simple Communion service. We shall again be distributing more copies of our Mission Action Plan (launched last week), or you can read it on our website under the 'About us' page of the website.

A reminder that our Church is open every day from 8.30 am to 6 pm (10 am to 6 pm on Saturdays) for those seeking peace and quiet in a warm space as the autumn chill sets in. A Eucharist is said every day except Thursday at 12 noon, and Evening Prayer is said in the Resurrection Chapel at 5.30 pm. Please do come and join us.

Looking further ahead in November, we are getting very excited at the thought of our Victorian Christmas Fair, to be held in and around the church on Saturday 26th November and kindly sponsored by Knight Frank. Entrance will be free, with vouchers on sale for children's activities either on the door or on the 'what is on' page of the website. Come and experience a Christmas Fair as it might have been when the church was built 150 years ago, with a (modernised!) Punch and Judy, Victorian games, carol singing and food, alongside the stalls. If you are able to help bake cakes or biscuits for the Victorian tea stall then please contact Leonora, who will be immensely grateful.

Finally, tickets are now on sale for our Christmas Messiah (Part 1) at 5.30 pm on Sunday 11th December. This will be a candlelit performance featuring our professional choir and the Purcell Players. Tickets are £15 and include a glass of wine and a mince pie and can be bought on the 'what is on' page of the website or by calling Leonora.

Send your holy angels to watch over us, O God, that on our lips will be found your truth and in our hearts your love; so we may ever taste your goodness in the land of the living, through Jesus Christ our Lord, Amen [Daily Prayer, response to Psalm 34]

With my love and prayers, Mother Emma
