

In Our Prayers This Week

*Simeon was filled with hope when he recognised the presence of Jesus.
So dear Lord, we pray that we too would have lives open to the awareness of your presence.*

*Lord Jesus Christ, you are the light of the world, you transform the darkness of human lives with the light of your salvation.
So we pray that your transforming light would drive out darkness and fear and bring hope to the lives of those who do not know your presence with them.*

We commend to you father St Mary Abbots' School. Praying particularly at this time for the Governing Board as they prepare to select the next head teacher. We pray for all candidates applying and for the wisdom of your spirit to guide all decision making.

Please remember before God those who have asked for our prayers

Candlemas Choral Evensong

This is one of the great services of the year with worship offered in darkness illuminated only by the candles each one of us will hold. The combined voluntary and professional choirs lead our worship.

A Candlemas Reflection

A traditional title for this feast, The Meeting of the Lord, connects with the encounter of Simeon and Anna with the infant Christ child. Their story reminds us of the importance of faithfulness and of being prepared to patiently wait. We live in an age where we can seemingly have everything we want almost immediately. Being prepared to wait is seen as an irritating hindrance and Anna and Simeon's demeanour can serve as a useful corrective to a view that can so often be about us as individuals, focusing on ourselves.

How wisely did the priest and poet R. S. Thomas conclude his poem Kneeling with the words, "The meaning is in the waiting". Often it is in times of waiting that we can develop and grow in our appreciation of God, his creation, one another and ourselves.

This title also reminds us that God cannot be ordered to meet us when we think it is convenient. He has, to put it simply, his own sense of timing, he will not be rushed. He is not at our beck and call. Rather we are to be like Anna and Simeon and believe that he will come to us. We are to be open and alert to recognise him and his work in our world and in our lives, which can so often be through encountering other people. This includes people of other faiths. We are reminded of this in the story of Jesus' encounter with the Roman Centurion who wanted his servant healed. And when he is challenged by the Canaanite woman whose daughter was unwell.

To book a table, email sg@smaw8.org There is also a sign-up sheet available on the table by the south door in case you would like to be placed on a table.

Hello from the vicarage!

Our family of five – Mark, Louise and three small boys – moved in three weeks ago after being kindly offered the house while St Mary Abbots selects its next vicar. Mark has recently started as curate at SMA's sister parish, Christ Church Kensington. He divides his time between the church on Victoria Road and the Houses of Parliament, where he also works as a chaplain to the Christians in Parliament All-Party Parliamentary Group. The group provides pastoral support to MPs, Peers and staff, including weekly chapel services, Bible studies and one-to-one meetings. It holds events and courses that seek to offer the grace of Christ to all and it also provides theological resources for thinking about public life and political practice. Prior to this role Mark spent 15 years working for Finsbury, the financial communications consultancy founded by Roland Rudd, of this parish! Louise spent 14 years as a business journalist with The Sunday Times and then The Daily Telegraph. She now has her hands full with Jake (4), Arthur (2) and baby Robin who is just three months. Thank you very much for having us here and we really look forward to meeting you as we settle in and to seeing you at the usual garden parties at the vicarage in the summer!

A New Electoral Roll

Every six years we are required by the church to create a brand new electoral roll. The slate is wiped clean, that which has gone before is forgotten and we begin with a blank page. It is all rather like forgiveness and absolution. The electoral roll of the church bears no relation to the electoral roll held by the council. Being on the electoral roll of the church demonstrates your commitment to the parish as well as making it much easier for us to communicate with you. Additionally it gives you voting rights at the Annual Parochial Church Meeting and it allows you to be married in church amongst other things. Please fill in a form ideally online at: <https://tinyurl.com/smaroll> Or a paper copy picked up from church. Our electoral roll officer is Ed Warrick: er@smaw8.org Who will be happy to answer any further questions
